RE: MDL 3084; Response to Notice of Deficient or Incomplete Ride Receipt or Ride Information Forms; MDLC ID 1721

Dear Mr. Hoerl:

Please allow this letter to serve as Plaintiffs' response to Uber Technologies Inc.'s. Notice of Deficient or Incomplete Ride Receipt or Ride Information Form in the following cases:

Plaintiff ID	Plaintiff Name	Case No.	Applicable Question No.	Ride Receipt Due Date	Days Since Ride Receipt Was Due	Response
1807	WHB 466	24-CV-05265	1,2	8/30/2024	290	#1: Plaintiff has disclosed (1) why the ride receipt is not available, (2) the name of the accountholder who ordered the ride, (3) the date of the ride, and (4) the exact starting and ending location of the ride, as required by PTO 5, paragraph 4, lines 25 through 4. In addition, Plaintiff has produced exhibit A, a screenshot of the Uber Trip History, which shows details of the ride at issue including the driver's name, along with the license plate number, car details, and time of the ride. Plaintiff has also produced Exhibit B, a screen shot of the Uber driver at issue's account profile.

						#2: Per PTO 5, paragraph 4, item (5), Plaintiff has provided significant additional basic information through exhibits A & B that should assist Defendants in identifying the ride.
1863	WHB 1409	24-CV-05122	3,6	8/28/2024	292	#3: Plaintiff provided the date of the ride with as much precision as reasonably possible, as required by PTO 5, paragraph 4 at lines 27 – 28. Plaintiff has also disclosed (1) why the ride receipt is not available, (2) the name, phone number, and email address of the accountholder who ordered the ride, (3) the date of the ride, with as much precision as possible as stated above and (4) the exact starting and ending location of the ride, as required by PTO 5. #6: This question is not applicable as Plaintiff has provided items (2) through (5) with precision.
1866	WHB 427	24-CV-05132	3.6	8/28/2024	292	#3: Plaintiff provided the date of the ride with as much precision as reasonably possible, as required by PTO 5, paragraph 4 at lines 27 – 28. Plaintiff has also disclosed (2) the name, phone number, and email address of the accountholder who ordered the ride, (3) the date of the ride, with as much precision as possible as stated above and (4) the exact starting and ending location of the ride, as required by PTO 5. #6: This question is not applicable as Plaintiff has provided items (2) through (5) with precision.
1867	WHB 1275	24-CV-05136	2	8/28/2024	292	#2: Per PTO 5, if items (2) through (5) cannot be provided at all, as is the case here in (2), Plaintiff must provide an explanation as to why the information is not readily ascertainable. *Note that item 2(B) does not allow for words to be entered, only numbers. As stated in her response to question (1), the Uber ride at issue was ordered by someone else. Not only did Plaintiff answer that she does not know the name and email address of the accountholder, she also provided an explanation as to why that information is not readily accessible in her response to question (6), as required by PTO 5, page 3, lines 2 – 4.

1868	WHB 1425	24-CV-05129	3	8/28/2024	292	#3: Plaintiff provided the date of the ride with as much precision as reasonably possible, as required by PTO 5, paragraph 4 at lines 27 – 28. Plaintiff has also disclosed (1) why the ride receipt is not available, (2) the name, phone number, and email address of the accountholder who ordered the ride, (3) the date of the ride, with as much precision as possible as stated above and (4) the exact starting and ending location of the ride, as required by PTO 5.
1874	WHB 638	24-CV-05116	3,6	8/28/2024	292	#3: Plaintiff provided the date of the ride with as much precision as reasonably possible, as required by PTO 5, paragraph 4 at lines 27 – 28. There are no deficiencies in the Ride Information Forms for the cases listed above. Each of the above-listed plaintiffs' Ride Information Forms are in compliance with PTO 5 and 10.

Please let me know when you are available to meet and confer as many of these plaintiffs are listed in Exhibit A to Uber's July 30 Motion for Entry of Order to Show Cause Why Plaintiffs Who Have Submitted Non-Bona Fide Ride Receipts Should Not Be Dismissed With Prejudice.

Very truly yours,
